

HEALTH, SAFETY & WELFARE POLICY & STATEMENT

1. PN Daly Ltd, Commitment to Health, Safety & Welfare:

- The company recognises the importance of health, safety and welfare arrangements and performance in the successful operation of its activities and believes in the active participation and co-operation of all employees, and sub-contractors, in order to achieve and maintain the highest possible standards.
- We will provide and maintain safe and healthy working conditions, plant, equipment and systems of work for all of our employees, and provide such information, training and supervision as they need for this purpose.
- Our activities will be conducted, as a minimum, in accordance with the relevant statutory requirements, appropriate safeguards being in place to prevent exposing employees and the general public to risks to their health and safety.
- We recognise the need to consult our workforce on health and safety issues in order to develop systems and procedures which are both safe and acceptable when put into practice and we welcome suggestions from our employees who serve to improve and promote this aim.
- Whilst overall responsibility for health and safety rests with the Chairman and Directors all employees should recognise that they have an important role to play in ensuring that the company is successful in achieving the aims and objectives set out within the policy.
- Our Health, Safety & Welfare policy will be kept up to date and the way in which it operates will be regularly reviewed. Any revisions will be brought to the attention of those affected by the changes.
- Our aim within the operation of this policy is simply stated:

“No accidents, incident or harm to people”
